

Hörner Hochstadt (Pfalz)

This trocken rosé wine from the vintage 2024 presents itself as a masterfully composed wine. With an alcohol content of 12,0% vol and a bottle size of 750 ml, it offers a balanced enjoyment experience that will delight both connoisseurs and casual drinkers.

Color:

The eye delights in an intense, bright pink, which already promises summer freshness and liveliness in the glass.

Aromas:

In the nose, a beguiling bouquet of fruity notes unfolds. Dominant here are the aromas of juicy raspberries, sweet strawberries, and fresh currants. These berry aromas give the wine a lively and seductive scent composition that makes you crave the first sip.

Taste:

On the palate, the wine presents itself trocken and convinces with its harmonious balance of acidity and sweetness. The acidity of 6,2 g/l gives it a refreshing liveliness, while the subtle sweetness of 5,4 g/l gives the wine a pleasant softness and fullness. The fruity aromas of raspberry, strawberry, and currant continue and give the wine a long-lasting, fruity freshness in the finish.

Closure:

The wine is equipped with a BVS screw cap, which not only ensures simple handling but also optimally preserves the freshness and quality of the wine.

Summary:

This dry rosé wine vintage cuvée 2024 is a perfect companion for mild summer evenings, light salads, and grilled seafood. Its intense color, tempting aroma, and balanced taste make it a versatile and appealing wine that enriches any occasion.
